Court of Protection & Powers of Attorney

Managing your affairs when you are no longer able to

Court of Protection & Powers of Attorney

Losing the ability to make your own decisions, due to unforeseen circumstances, can be extremely difficult for you and your loved ones.

Ensuring you have the right support during this time is crucial. Whether you are looking for help to appoint a Deputy or Attorney, someone to act as professional Deputy or Attorney, or some legal support and advice, our experienced team are here to help.

Court of Protection

Due to serious injury or illness, more and more people are unexpectedly losing the ability to make their own decisions. If they are yet to appoint an Attorney, an application must be made to the Court of Protection for a Deputy to be appointed.

We will provide straightforward advice relating to your particular circumstances and assist you in the appointment of a Deputy. Alternatively, we can act as professional Deputy and have extensive experience in acting as professional Deputy on behalf of clients for external personal injury firms or solicitors and Local Authorities who are looking for a partner they can trust.

We can also help with the following;

- Advice on existing applications before the Court of Protection
- Advice on contested applications before the Court of Protection
- Assistance in the making of applications to the Court of Protection for a Statutory Will, Gift, sale or purchase of a property and other stand-alone applications
- Support and advice to existing Deputies

Powers of Attorney

Once an Attorney is in place, ensuring they have the support they need to manage your affairs is vital.

We can help with the following;

- Advice on preparing a Lasting Power of Attorney and who to appoint
- Advice on contested applications before the Court of Protection relating to registration or revocation of a Power of Attorney and the actions of an Attorney
- Support and advice to existing Attorneys
- Act as a Professional Attorney

Expert Witness Services

When a witness statement is required in support of a claim for personal injury or clinical negligence damages, our specialist Court of Protection team are available to provide a detailed statement on the following;

- Capacity of the Protected Party
- Whether the appointment of a professional Deputy is appropriate
- The issue of proportionality of costs
- The role of the Deputy and level of input required
- Future Deputyship costs
- Whether a Statutory Will should be put in place
- The role of Deputy as direct employer in cases involving care teams

Expert witness statements can be provided;

- For Claimants
- For Defendants
- As a single joint expert
- On the costs of a Personal Injury Trust and whether its use is appropriate as opposed to a professional Deputy being appointed
